

North Queensland Family Wellbeing

Project ECHO community of practice

Join this interprofessional community of practice led by:

Alyce Rosenthal– A/CNC Domestic and Family Violence Specialist, North West Hospital and Health Service

Tina Ferguson – Child Protection Liaison Officer, North West Hospital and Health Service

We welcome child safety practitioners, child protection staff, education professionals, and other primary care providers to participate in this interactive learning network.

Sessions include a case or scenario discussion, and short presentation on a topic identified by the group as a priority learning need.

Shared aim: To build a cross-sector community of practice around domestic and family violence and child protection in North Queensland.

2nd Wednesday of the month, 9:30-10:30am
